Local Tour Company Expands its Services to Meet the Demands of a Booming Central Texas Wedding Scene
Access ATX Launches Unique Wedding Week Experiences

AUSTIN, TX - Central Texas is increasingly becoming known as the Wedding Capital of the World - with surrounding cities and towns experiencing a boom in destination weddings. With its notoriety for unique events, lush landscapes, and world class eats, Austin is emerging as the wedding destination favorite. Local businesses have begun to take note and offer services to meet the growing demand.

“With its unique charm and beautiful country settings Austin, as well as its surrounding Hill Country, offers the perfect wedding experience and the local vendors have responded,” said Jessica Upton, Uptown Events & Travel owner. “There are many offerings here in our area for every type of wedding, from urban to rural, the options are here. This is now the place to be and the place to be wed.”

Access ATX, a local Austin tour company, has launched premium Austin wedding week experiences for bachelor and bachelorette events, as well as activities to entertain wedding parties before and after the Big Day. Tours center on indulging in Austin’s delectable eats, hand-crafted libations, and lively entertainment on customized experiences designed for the wedding party with discerning tastes.

From cocktail scavenger hunts, to exploring Texas ranch lands, to journeying through Austin’s foodie destinations - Access ATX wedding week experiences offer uniquely exceptional tours that wedding parties seek when they choose Austin as their destination.

“We are fanatical about all things Austin and are excited to now share our premium experiences with brides, grooms, and their wedding parties,” said Meagan Fritts, Access ATX owner. “Austin and the surrounding Central Texas area is home to so much vibrant entertainment and culture, inspiring cuisine and stunning outdoor settings that make it a perfect wedding destination. We are here to help show off these things to your guests.”

Tours run weekly and can be tailored to suit any itinerary. Visit www.accessatx.com for more information.
